1.4 Overview of Document

The next chapter, the General Description section, of this document gives an overview of the functionality of the website. It describes the informal requirements and is used to establish a context for the technical requirements specification in the next chapter.

The third chapter, Requirements Specification section, of this document is written primarily for the developer(s) and describes in technical terms the details of the functionality of the project.

Both sections of the document describe the same project in its entirety, but are intended for different audiences and thus use different language.

2 General Description

2.1 List of Features

As this document is still in draft form, an informal gathering of features requested for the project from users and admin will be accumulated by way of a Google Forms document.
